

Children's rights

From a summary of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, articles especially relevant to conflict and violence

Article 6

Every child has the right to life. Governments must do all they can to ensure that children survive and develop to their full potential.

Article 19

Governments must do all they can to ensure that children are protected from all forms of violence, abuse, neglect and bad treatment by their parents or anyone else who looks after them.

Article 27

Every child has the right to a standard of living that is good enough to meet their physical and social needs and support their development. Governments must help families who cannot afford to provide this.
